

Stephen Somerstein, marchers on the way to Montgomery as families watch from their porches, 1965. Courtesy of the photographer

Looking to get involved with the CHS?

We are seeking volunteer gallery attendants for an upcoming exhibition. CHS is excited to host a traveling exhibit, Freedom Journey 1965: Photographs of the Selma to Montgomery March by Stephen Somerstein, from the New-York Historical Society, from January 28 through June 5, 2021.

Volunteer gallery attendants monitor the exhibit space in approximately 2.5 hour shifts. CHS gallery open hours are Tuesdays-Fridays Noon-5pm and Saturdays 9am-5pm. Pick your days and hours – as many or as few days as you would like. No expertise about the exhibit will be required.

This exhibition has been organized by the New-York Historical Society. Support for this exhibition is provided by Bank of America and the Henry Nias Foundation. Additional support for the Connecticut Historical Society provided by RMC Investment Advisors, Stanley Black & Decker, and Barnes Group Inc.

Contact:
Susan Presutti at susan\_presutti@chs.org
or visit chs.org/exhibition/freedomjourney1965

NEW-YORK HISTORICAL SOCIETY
MUSEUM & LIBRARY

Connecticut Historical Society
museum & library