10 Immediate Rack and Stack Technicians

Are you looking to get your foot in the door with a Fortune 100 company? I currently am recruiting for 10 immediate positions. Qualified candidates will be wiring and connecting Cisco routers & Switches to 6' metal racks. Candidate will be working with basic hand tools, and measuring/cutting/splicing/connecting wiring.   Hours are 8:00-5:00 however must be flexible to overtime and Saturdays if needed. This position is paying 15.00 an hour and requires clear drug and background check. In addition excellent attendance and work ethic required.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Install, integrate various product/equipment per Build Specifications and/or Configuration Instructions
- Cable Management
- Procurement of materials for project specific requirements
- Complete physical audit of equipment and accessories
- Perform asset tagging based on customer requirements
- Troubleshoot errors
- Confirm all necessary information has been captured correctly
- Confirm hardware is functional
- Execute work to customer-defined requirements

How to Apply:
Qualified candidates should email their resume to include month and year on dates of employment as a Microsoft Word document to:kgorczynski@ultimatestaffing.com and enter KMG Rack & Stack in the subject line of your email.

QUALIFICATIONS PREFERRED:

- High School diploma or GED
- Previous experience racking Telco or Network Equipment is preferred but will consider someone with education or electronics or hardware background
- Ability to read engineering drawings
- Cat 5 and Cat 3 knowledge is helpful
- Basic electronic hardware troubleshooting skills
- Basic knowledge of AC & DC Power
- Ability to use a handheld computer
- Ability to lift 50 lbs
- Good communication skills – written and verbal

ZIP CODE 62025