Responsibilities

Chris Schmidt is a Vice President with JLL specializing in industrial tenant representation, leasing, and sales. Chris' clients include private and public corporations, institutional and private Landlords in St. Louis and throughout North America.

Experience

Prior to joining JLL, Chris spent 8 years at Cresa as a Senior Advisor representing tenants both in the office and the industrial sector in St. Louis and across the nation. Chris also spent 6 years at Stifel Nicolaus in the financial market providing a wide range of services including financial modeling, strategic planning, and research.

During his career, Chris has been involved in lease negotiations with national and local companies such as PLZ Corporation, Nova Marketing, 3M and Missouri Confluence COOP in the industrial market and Business Training Library, Gardner Capital, American Family Insurance, and EFK Moen in the office market. Chris currently represents TAGG logistics on their 750,000 SF industrial portfolio across the country.

Education and Affiliations

Chris received his Bachelor of Science in Finance in Banking, with an emphasis in Real Estate and a minor in Biological Sciences at the University of Missouri Columbia. He is a licensed real estate salesperson in the state of Missouri, and a member of the Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals (CSCMP).

A St. Louis Native, Chris plays an active role in the community by serving on the Chaminade College Prep Alumni Board and the Under Forty Committee for the 1904 World's Fair Charitable Foundation.
