ONE ANOTHER
John 13:34

Living the Christian life can be simply summed up: Love God – Love One Another. But it's not always simple to do, or even to know what that looks like. Often Jesus tells his followers, "As I have loved you, love one another... serve one another...forgive one another." Through fun skits, crazy games, and hands-on activities, this recharge theme will address topics like unity, one body many parts, and humility in order to help campers see how to form genuine relationships with others.

Confirmation Connection: Ten Commandments, baptism, using gifts to serve inside and outside the church, and connecting the Old and New Testament themes of caring for our neighbors.

SPRING
2019

DEAR GOD
Philippians 4:6

When should I pray? How do I pray? Does God hear my prayers? These are really normal questions that many people have about prayer. At Spring Recharge, campers will focus on three famous prayers in Scripture that help answer some of these questions: The Lords' Prayer, Psalm 23, and Psalm 51. Through small groups and hands-on activities, campers will gain confidence praying with others and for others. Campers will learn several tools and methods to incorporate prayer into daily and weekly life.

Confirmation Connection: Prayer – Praxis and Understanding, Lord's Prayer, Becoming more comfortable leading prayers
