

Our community and our nation need better, more effective mental health systems — we must stop using jails and prisons to house those who need help.

Please join Judge Arthur Burnett for a discussion of our mental health-care and judicial systems, including the latest on ways to eliminate unlawful discrimination and the consciously, deliberately disparate treatment of patients based on their race.

Huston-Tillotson University

Agard-Lovinggood Auditorium

April 15, 2016, 3:30 – 5:30 p.m.

Free and open to the public

Parking at East Seventh Street and Chalmers Avenue

Arthur Burnett Sr.

Retired Judge, Vice President of Administration & National Executive Director of National African American Drug Policy Coalition Inc.